

Professional Manager's Certificate Program

Improving Your Conflict Competence

Feb. 24, 2020
4 - 5 p.m. | Heritage Dining Room
Speakers: Wendy Vonnegut, J.D.
and Michael Wayland

Learn the dynamics that create workplace conflict, understand how to appropriately respond to conflict, discover practical steps to manage emotions, and engage others constructively to reduce and eliminate conflict among employees.

This presentation is a required seminar in the Professional Manager's Certificate program. Faculty, staff, graduate students, and full-time students are eligible to participate.

About the Speaker

Wendy Vonnegut is an associate professor and director of the legal studies program at Methodist University. She is the prelaw advisor for the University. She has served as the chair of the Conflict Resolution Committee, and is an academic advisor. She currently serves on the Tenure and Promotion Committee. Vonnegut has been an active member of the Fayetteville community, and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Child Advocacy Center, Legal Aid of Cumberland County, and is a Teen Court Judge. She recently received the National Dean Gerald Wilson Award for excellence in prelaw advising.

Michael Wayland is an associate professor of management at Methodist University. He earned a B.A. from Providence College and an M.A. from Wayne State University. His research interests include negotiation, mediation, and business strategy.

PROFESSIONAL MANAGER'S
CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

To reserve your seat for this seminar, contact Carol Pope at capope@methodist.edu or 910.630.7152.