

Professional Manager's Certificate Program

Organizational Behavior

Feb. 20, 2020

4 - 5 p.m. | H122

Speaker: Dr. George Hendricks

Learn to assess employees' perceptions and attitudes that influence behavior in relation to their jobs, work group, and organization; discover how to apply appropriate leadership styles and managerial practices to increase organizational effectiveness and positive employee outcomes.

This presentation is an elective seminar in the Professional Manager's Certificate program. Faculty, staff, graduate students, and full-time students are eligible to participate.

About the Speaker

Dr. George Hendricks serves as the Dean of the School of Public Affairs and Dean of the Graduate School at Methodist University. Prior to his current appointment, he served as chair of the MU Social Work Department for six years. George has 12 years of practice experience in school social work where he worked with at-risk elementary, middle, and high school and alternative school students. He holds the NASW School Social Work Specialist certification. His research interests and dissertation include the academic achievement of homeless children. He is one of four authors who recently published the book, Methamphetamine: A Multidisciplinary Approach to Solving the Problem. His major research interest deals with the educational achievement of homeless children. He holds a BSW and MSW from East Carolina University and a Ph.D. in Human Services from Walden University. His favorite quote is by Gandhi, "Be the change you wish to see in the world."

PROFESSIONAL MANAGER'S
CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

To reserve your seat for this seminar, contact Carol Pope at capope@methodist.edu or 910.630.7152.