

Professional Manager's Certificate Program

Fundamentals of Supervision

Jan. 30, 2020
4 - 5 p.m. | Heritage Dining Room
Speaker: Michael Lerario

Explore the essential components of effective delegation; learn how to achieve results through others; incorporate the right mix of functional and interpersonal skills; learn to design and lead productive meetings; learn to coach others to improve performance, develop careers, and encourage a high performance level.

This presentation is an elective seminar in the Professional Manager's Certificate program. Faculty, staff, graduate students, and full-time students are eligible to participate.

About the Speaker

Mike Lerario is president and principal consultant for Crispian Consulting Inc., a firm that provides specialized services, training, and coaching in leadership development. Using the Fulcrum-Centric Leadership model and the Leadership Fulcrum Assessment, Lerario and his company work to develop better teams by building more effective leaders.

A 1983 graduate of the United States Military Academy, Mike served 23 years as an infantry officer in Airborne and Ranger assignments and retired a lieutenant colonel in 2006 after serving with the Joint Special Operations Command. He is the author of the 2016 Amazon.com International Best Seller "Leadership in Balance: The Fulcrum-Centric Plan for Emerging and High Potential Leaders." His next book, "Be the Fulcrum: At Work," will be published in early 2020.

To reserve your seat for this seminar, contact Carol Pope at capope@methodist.edu or 910.630.7152.